

Seacoast Ukulele Players

JANUARY 2023

I planned on phasing out the Wednesdays during the dark months - but I am leaving them all on the calendar for January so that we have enough options for practicing our songs for the Mill 5 event in Lowell on January 29. Anyone who is not comfortable with the dark or the weather, please don't feel you need to come out! We will be meeting every Saturday too.

On January 4th and 7th we will have Spider Drew with us to practice the songs that include his harmonica. If you haven't experienced Spider's playing before, you are in for a treat!

On January 28th we will have something of a dress rehearsal, and go through as much of the list as possible.

Even if you are not planning to go to Lowell, this should be a fun month of songs! Please see the draft list. At this time, it is still DRAFT. Some songs will be weeded out and there is still time to suggest alternates. If you have ideas for new Groundhog parodies, or want to perform a song as a solo or small group, please bring it forward early in the month. The goal is a set of songs we are confident with. All fun, no stress!

Happy New Year!
