

Waitin' on the Groundhog Parody by Bill S

Corner

artist:Creedence Clearwater Revival , writer:John Fogerty

Bass Intro

[C] Down in Punxsutawny [G] In February every [C] year, People come from far and wide, a [G] forecast for to [C] hear

[F] They're waitin' on the [C] Groundhog, a custom really old [G] looking for the Springtime, 'cause they just hate [C] the cold

[F] Hey, Phil [C] the Groundhog, [G] won't you let us [C] know? is it [F] six more weeks of [C] Winter in the [G] cold and ice and [C] snow?

[C] Men are standing at a cave, [G] Wearin' tails and [C] hats

[C] Hoping that old Phil will show [G] he's furry, big and [C] fat

[F] When he sticks his head out they [C] pick him up and cheer [G] six more weeks of winter once again this [C] year.

[F] Hey, Phil [C] the Groundhog, [G] won't you let us [C] know? is it [F] six more weeks of [C] Winter in the [G] cold and ice and [C] snow?

[C] If he sees his shadow [G] winter's six weeks [C] long But if he doesn't, then what?

[G] something here seems [C] wrong [F] No matter what the forecast, [C] Winter seems to stay

[C] Seems to me it's just a reason [G] to celebrate Ground hog [C] Day

[F] Hey, Phil [C] the Groundhog, [G] won't you let us [C] know? is it [F] six more weeks of [C] Winter in the [G] cold and ice and [C] snow?

Repeat this verse end on [C] [C]
