The Left Bank made this a hit at #5 on the charts in '66.

1-2-3-4 [G] [G]

[G] And when I [D]see the sign that [F] points One [Am] Way,
[C]the lot we [G]used to pass by [C] every [A7]day

[G] Just walk [Em] away, Renee,
You [C] won't see me follow [G] you back [D] home.
[G] The empty [Em]sidewalks on my [C] block are not the
[G]saaa [D]me.... [Em]
You're [C]not [Am] to [G] blame.

[G] From deep [D] inside the fear, [F] that I forced [Am] aside,
[C] from deep in [G] side the pain, [C] that I chose to [A7] hide.

[G] Just walk [Em] away, Renee,
You [C] won't see me follow [G] you back [D] home.
[G] Now as the [Em] rain beats down [C] upon my weary
[G] eyes [D] [Em]
for [C] me [Am] it [G] cries.

[G] Your name and [D] mine inside, a [F] heart upon a [Am] wall,
[C] still find a [G] way to haunt me, [C] though they're so [A7] small.

[G] Just walk [Em] away, Renee,
You [C] won't see me follow [G] you back [D] home.
[G] The empty [Em]sidewalks on my [C] block are not the
[G]saaa [D]me.... [Em]
You're [C]not [Am] to [G] blame.
